London Plant Region : The Bachelors, at the Brick lane Music Hall

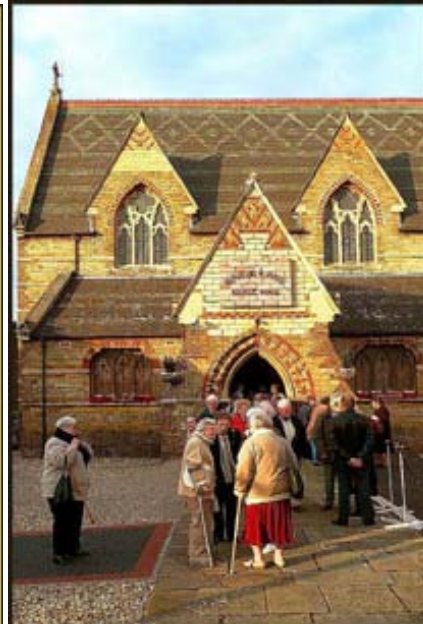

An afternoon with The Batchelors.

Wednesday 19th March 46 London Region Associates Board a coach for a visit to Brick Lane Music Hall for an afternoon performance given by the Bachelors. The building is next to City Airport 30 minutes journey from the coach pick up point.

On arriving at our destination we were surprised to find that a very old church had been converted into the old style Music Hall.

Going to Church.

There were murals of times past.

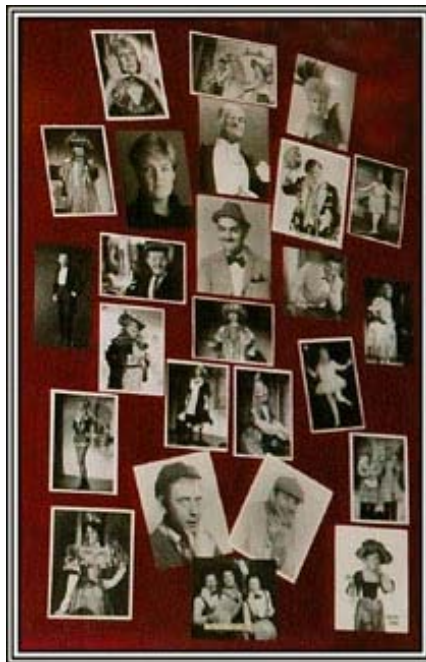

The mural on the wall outside.

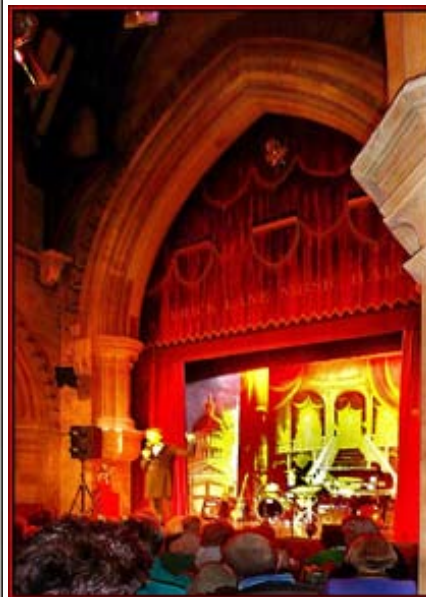

The Brick Lane of the past.

An interior wall mural.

Artists of the past

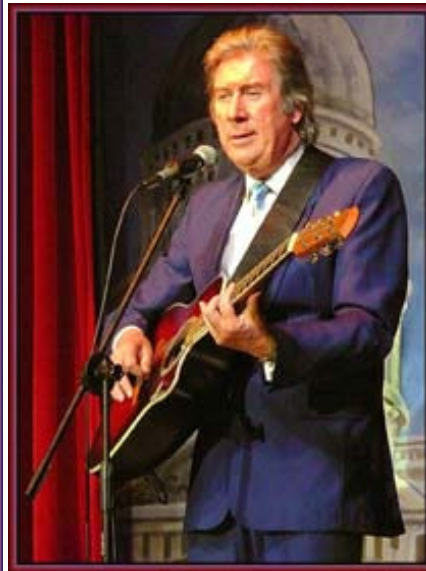

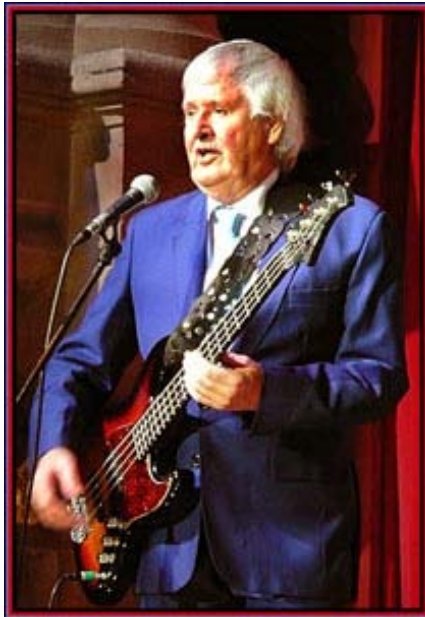

The warm up session - the stage complete with comedian.

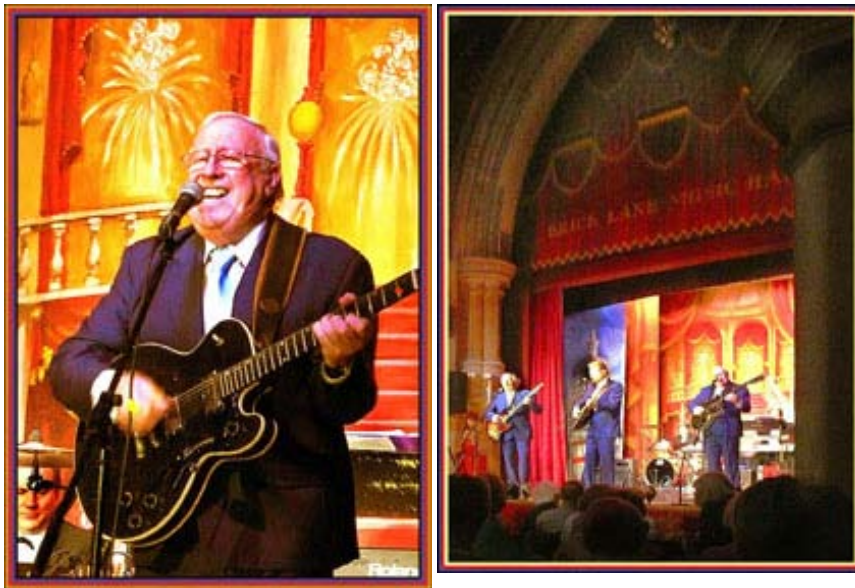

Inside we were packed in tight.

The entertainment was very good.

The Batchelors on stage.

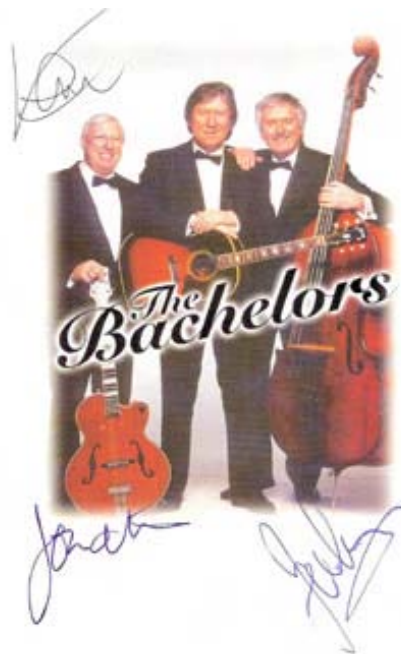

During the interval, fresh cut sandwiches and selection of cakes with tea or coffee were served to the tables.

Goodies at the interval.

At the end of the show a DVD of the latest Bachelors recording were on sale. On purchase the Bachelors would sign it (see below). Many of the group will now be able to continue listening to their music. All said that they had enjoyed the show and that we should revisit next year.

Homeward Bound.

London Plant Region : London Plant Trampers at Hockley.

The first walk of the year on March 17th started from The Bull at Hockley.

The Bull.

For the first walk of the year I thought not again "Rain", but considering the weather had been really bad leading up to the day, we were lucky, a cool but dry slot. Somebody was smiling on us.

22 of us assembled at "The Bull ", at Hockley. We kicked off on a pleasant stroll across the fields and through some of the local woodland with signs of Spring already showing - So it was muddy and slippery, but that's all part of it, another opportunity to enjoy the countryside, and on completing the 3 mile walk we all enjoyed a good lunch to round off the event.

John and Joyce Camplin, Mike and Jan Clements.
