

Love Learning

It's not too late! -

Learn something new this autumn - courses starting soon

A huge variety of courses, themed talks, lunchtime sessions and study groups to choose from – pay one fee and come along to as many sessions as you like!

Open Sessions include:

Images of Ancient Egypt | The Beginnings of the Cosmos |
Glaciers and Climate | The History of Ideas | Brit Art |
The Page that Changed My Life | The Painted Portrait

Plus, you can also reserve a place on one of our many bookable courses. Including:

Seven Newcastle Buildings | Gateshead Local Study Day |
The Landscape of the Lake District | Beginning Philosophy |
Great Composers | Jazz | The Night Sky | The Brain | RSC Season |
21st Century Fiction | Contemporary Poetry

- and lots more!

These are seminar courses with limited places, so first come, first served, but you get a priority booking which you can use to secure your place on a course.

Our unique Explore Membership Scheme gives you the opportunity to enjoy your favourite subjects, try out new ones, and meet like-minded people. All for one fee (for details see overleaf)

Courses begin in October and are held in the centre of Newcastle upon Tyne (Newcastle University campus and Newcastle Arts Centre, Westgate Road)
